REPORTED THREEFOLD DEMANDS BY HITLER ON VICHY: HANDING OVER OF FRENCH FLEET AND USE OF MEDITERRANEAN PORTS

Reorganisation Of Cabinet Sought

FRANCE IS FACING HER GRAVEST HOUR, STATES A MESSAGE FROM SYDNEY, WHICH DECLARES THAT IT WAS LEARNED THERE THAT HERR HITLER'S LATEST DEMANDS ON VICHY, WHICH HAVE BEEN PRESENTED TO MARSHAL PETAIN, ARE:—

- (1) Active collaboration with Germany.
- (2) Reconstitution of the Vichy Cabinet.
- (3) Co-operation in the Mediterranean.

The Nazi interpretation of co-operation in the Mediterranean is stated to be the handing over of the French Fleet to Germany and the use of French ports in that area.

Although this report was not confirmed in London the opinion there is that Hitler's demands will follow the lines indicated above.

UNEXPECTED ARRIVAL OF M. BAUDOIN FROM PARIS

LONDON, Feb. 3 (Reuter)—The Times reports the unexpected arrival in Vichy from Paris of M. BAUDOIN, former Petain Minister and friend of M. Laval, and this is believed to be a prelude to an attempt to get M. Laval reinstated in the Vichy Cabinet under German pressure.

The DAILY TELEGRAPH thinks Hitler would then use Laval to obtain assistance against Britain, mainly the naval base of Bizerte and at least a benevolent neutrality in Tunis which was threatened by the Italian Army in Tripoli.

Meanwhile, the anti-Vichy campaign from the German controlled Paris press and radio continues. One leader of the Nazi-inspired new national popular party, formed in Paris on Saturday, insinuates over the radio that Vichy is jeopardising French future and reveals the bait offered by Hitler for fuller French co-operation.

INTEGRITY OF FRANCE
He declared M. Laval had obtained peace terms which would guarantee the integrity of France and her empire, except Alsace and part of Lorraine.

He added the Germans decided to liberate as many prisoners as there were French workmen willing to accept work in Germany and that the Germans consented to release hundreds and thousands of prisoners of war for the safeguard of the French harvest.

Today's News Summary

THE HANDING OVER OF THE FRENCH FLEET and the use of French ports in the Mediterranean is reported to be among one of three demands made by Hitler on Vichy. Meanwhile Admiral Darlan, friend of M. Laval, whose return to power is sought, has unexpectedly arrived in Vichy from Paris.

FOLLOWING THE CAPTURE OF AGORDAT on Sunday, British forces yesterday occupied Barentu and preparations are now proceeding for the advance on Derna. It is reported that Indian troops have done magnificent work in occupying hill positions in the face of strong opposition.

THE TESTIMONY OF MR. WENDELL WILLKIE before the Foreign Relations Committee of the House of Representatives on what he has seen during his visit to Britain is likely to provide a climax to the debate on the Lease and Lend Bill in Washington.

COLONEL G. F. B. TURNER, D.S.O., who designed most of the bombs used by the British Army in the last war, died in London yesterday. He was of the opinion that London could not be wiped in a night by gas and bombs.

SWORDFISH AIRCRAFT OF THE FLEET AIR ARM on Sunday attacked Sardinia. Yesterday single German raiders were over Britain and one plane was shot down by anti-aircraft fire.

FRENCH FLEET WILL DEFEND EMPIRE

Radio Lyons gave the summary of a speech by ADMIRAL DARLAN in which he said that the French Fleet at present in the future will remain under French jurisdiction and will defend the empire against any attack from any quarter, states a London message.

ANOTHER WOEFUL ANSALDO SPEECH

Signor Ansaldo, who is now known as "Woe, woe, Ansaldo," was in woeful mood, according to a London message, when he broadcast to the Italian armed forces.

Signor Ansaldo referred to the disasters in Greece and North Africa as painful. He tried to cheer himself up by quoting Hitler's threat to annihilate Britain.

Italian dependence on Germany was illustrated in another broadcast by the President of the Italian Anti-Federation of Industrial Workers, who said that Italian workers' hours should be increased so that more could be set free to go to Germany to work for the Germans.

In yet a third broadcast concern was expressed about the United States.

Two opposing lines were taken. One that America was inciting Britain to fight in the interests of British Imperialism and the other assuring the United States that she is the dupe of Britain.

ENEMY PLANES KILL OWN PRISONERS

The Admiralty issued the following communique late yesterday, states a London message.

It has been reported from the Mediterranean that a large number of Italian prisoners have lost their lives as a result of either German or Italian action.

A merchant ship, which was evacuating prisoners from Libya, was attacked by aircraft when several hits were scored on the vessel.

A large number of casualties was caused among Italian prisoners of war and many of them were fatally injured.

3 GREATEST LEADERS

The South African Minister of Finance said that it is history had to decide who were the three greatest leaders produced by the war it could not do better than choose Mr. WINSTON CHURCHILL, Mr. FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT (a great American of Dutch descent) and General SMUTS, states a London message.

WAR PRODUCTION FOR EAST

Australia will soon become the centre of war production for the East, states a Sydney message.

Australian workmen are showing themselves equal to the British in the manufacture of war materials and equipment and the production of the Bren gun in Australia is considered a great feat because of its intricate parts.

Japan Will Ignore Representations By The Netherlands

TOKYO, Feb. 3 (Reuter)—JAPAN WILL IGNORE THE REPRESENTATIONS MADE BY THE NETHERLANDS MINISTER regarding the new order in East Asia, according to vernacular newspapers.

According to reports from London, the Netherlands Minister has been instructed to reject the suggested incorporation of the Netherlands East Indies in the new order in East Asia under Japanese domination.

It is understood that Mr. Ohashi, Vice-Minister for Foreign Affairs, in rejecting the representations, declared that the Japanese Government has nothing to do with the observations of the Netherlands Government which has removed its seat to London.

ECONOMIC AFFAIRS
He further declared that common prosperity as advocated by Japan concerns only economic affairs and has no political significance and therefore the Batavia parley between Japan and the Netherlands East Indies will be continued.

The Domei Agency urges the Netherlands Government to "look straight at actualities before criticising the sphere of common prosperity of Greater East Asia" while the YOMIURI SHIMBUN warns the Netherlands Government "it would forfeit the right to existence in Greater East Asia before the combined attack of all East Asiatic peoples if it should persist in the bigoted and obstinate attitude instigated by British and American influences."

Not Japan's Intention

TOKYO, Feb. 3 (Reuter)—"Japan has no intention whatsoever of forcing war upon the United States but it would be a masterpiece and strategic achievement on the part of the Axis Powers should the United States unless war in the Pacific of her own accord," REAR-ADMIRAL GUMPEI SEKINE (retired), former chief of the defense Publicity Bureau of the Navy Office and naval commentator, declared writing in the HOCHI SHIMBUN.

The United States cannot at present extend full aid to Britain and wage war on Japan at the same time, the Japanese commentator said, because firstly, American industrial power is insufficient, secondly, the naval strength is insufficient and thirdly, on account of a possible protraction of a war with Japan should it be started now.

BARENTU OCCUPIED: PREPARATIONS FOR ADVANCE ON DERN A PROCEEDING

It was officially announced in London yesterday afternoon that the British forces have occupied the town of BARENTU, in Eritrea, states a London message. It was already known that the Italian troops in Barentu had been cut off when the British took Agordat. The Fleet Air Arm and the R.A.F. co-operated in the occupation.

A communique from Cairo states:—
LIBYA: Preparations for the continuation of the advance on Derna are proceeding; ERITREA: As a result of the British operations the enemy evacuated Barentu which was occupied yesterday. In the northern sector the British mechanised forces are pressing back the Italian forces; ABYSSINIA: The British pursuit of enemy forces which are retreating to Gondar is continuing.

The Italians destroyed large quantities of stores and materials before evacuating. ITALIAN SOMALILAND: Vigorous activity by British patrols continues to extend penetration across the frontier.

It was added in London that the capture of Barentu and Agordat now threatens the Red Sea port of MASSAWA.

BRITISH FORCES ARE PURSUING ITALIANS ON FOUR FRONTS IN EAST AFRICA: INDIAN TROOPS MAGNIFICENT WORK

THERE WILL BE NO DUNKIRK FOR INVADERS

MESSAGE TO ST. GEORGE'S SOC.

"Though the German invaders may land here none will return. There will be no Dunkirk for them," stated Lord Queensborough in his monthly message to Royal Society of St. George, according to a London message.

Lord Queensborough added that Britain had superiority, "if not in numbers, then in morale on land, sea and in the air."

On land there had never been any doubt that the Briton was superior to the German.

The growing spirit of British and American well-wishers must spell defeat for the enemy although that defeat would not be without heavy losses.

CANNOT BE DECISIVE

STOCKHOLM, Feb. 3 (Reuter)—Whatever the Germans do to help the Italians it cannot be decisive, states COLONEL BRATT, the Swedish military expert, in the DAGENS NYHETER today.

At best, the German help might make General Wavell's forces retire but could hardly result in the capture of the Suez Canal.

Colonel Bratt considers an attempted invasion of Britain is the most probable alternative. But he believes the Germans hope intensified submarine warfare will bring a result that will make the vast risks of invasion unnecessary.

"If an invasion is attempted, he considers it will be when winter is merging into spring."

"None can foresee with any certainty where the attempt will succeed or fail."

Aussie Sappers Repair Broken Coast Road

BRITISH FORCES ARE PURSUING THE ITALIANS ON FOUR FRONTS IN EAST AFRICA, states a London message. Only in LIBYA where General Wavell's army is concentrated west of DERN A is there a temporary pause in the advance. The troops are now in hilly country.

Australian sappers have repaired the coast road which was broken by the retreating Italians and there is a continuous stream of supplies coming up.

In ERITREA, an Italian division is trapped in the town of BARENTU which is being bombed by British guns. Indian troops have done magnificent work withstanding Italian counter-attacks and occupying hill positions in the face of strong opposition.

The railway between the town of AGORDAT, which was captured on Sunday, and the Red Sea port of MASSAWA, runs through difficult country. There is a road beside the railway and this appears to be the only way through which the British forces can advance.

The only two good roads leading out of Barentu are held by British forces.

SARDINIA RAIDED

LONDON, Feb. 3 (Reuter)—Swordfish aircraft of the Fleet Air Arm successfully attacked one of the main sources of power supply in Sardinia yesterday, according to an Admiralty communique.

One British aircraft is missing from the operation.

An Italian High Command communique states the British planes dropped bombs and two aerial torpedoes on the dam of the River Torsu during the air raid on Sardinia.

The communique adds one British plane was shot down.

LEASE AND LEND BILL: BIG FIGHT EXPECTED

A big fight is expected when the LEASE AND LEND BILL reaches the Senate from Washington, states a London message.

It is likely that MR. WENDELL WILLKIE's testimony of what he has seen in Britain is likely to come as a climax.

The Bill has been postponed for another week in order to hear opponents of the Bill, including COL CHARLES LINDBERGH.

Designer Of Bombs In Last War Passes

COL. G. F. B. TURNER

Colonel George Frederick Brown Turner, D. S. O., designer of most of the bombs used by the British Army in the 1914-18 war, died in London yesterday at the age of 64, states a London message.

The late Col. Turner was at one time Superintendent of Design at the Woolwich Arsenal and was placed on retired pay in 1933.

He held the opinion that London could not be wiped out in a night by gas and bomb attacks. "I know something about gas as I have lived for days in France in areas drenched with mustard gas," he said.

"KEEP RIGHT AT IT" WILLKIE TELLS WORKMAN IN LIVERPOOL

MR. WENDELL WILLKIE, who is making a tour of Britain's industrial areas yesterday visited LIVERPOOL and MANCHESTER, states a London message.

He was impressed by the fact that workmen are carrying on with the building of the Liverpool Cathedral whose windows, he said, were the most beautiful he had ever seen.

Mr. Willkie said that what he had seen of the bombed areas had convinced him that this type of warfare would not accomplish its object of killing off the population or shaking their resolve.

As a matter of fact, these tactics had increased the resolution of the people.

Mr. Willkie was given a great reception in Liverpool, where, turning to a workman, he said, "Keep right at it."

TACTICAL MISTAKE BY INDIANS' SKIPPER ENABLED K.C.C. TO SCORE OUTRIGHT WIN

Anderson Carries Bat For Polished 74: Recreio Held To A Draw At Happy Valley

BY "BARNABAS"

KOWLOON C.C.'S PROSPECTS OF RETAINING THE SENIOR LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP HAVE BRIGHTENED IMMENSURABLY, not only as a result of their victory over the Indians last Saturday but also on account of the fact that their closest rivals, Club de Recreio, were held to a draw by the Civil Service.

The feature of the match at Cox's Road between K.C.C. and the Indians was the absurdly early declaration made by Khassan Nazarin, the Indian skipper. In view of the fact that in February stumps are not drawn until 6.15 p.m., Nazarin, in my opinion, stretched sportsmanship to a trifle too far when he declared the I.R.C. innings closed at 4.15 p.m., with the score at 157 for 8 wickets, thus giving the K.C.C. a team whose batting capabilities go down right to the eleventh man, two hours in which to score the necessary runs.

The K.C.C. batsmen set about their task in a leisurely manner, only Francis Lay seeming to have been in a hurry, and when the winning shot was scored they had no less than ten minutes to spare.

The Indians had first lease of the wicket and Abdul Rumjahn and Harry Esmail carried the score to 45 runs before Esmail fell victim to Lloyd.

Rumjahn who was showing flashes of his old brilliance at this stage of the game was then associated with Ahmad Madar and together they brought the score to 67 when Rumjahn called for an absurdly short run and was promptly run out by Lloyd. He had collected a delightful 38.

Madar was gaining confidence with every ball sent down, and when he had his eye well in, he played a forceful innings which came to a close when he gave a catch to Duggie Hung who grimly hung on to it. He had scored 41.

Ernie Fincher brought off a beautiful one-handed catch, right on the boundary to dismiss Fatty Minu who might have proved a veritable thorn in the K.C.C. side. K.M. Rumjahn batted well for his 17 runs, Nazarin rang the bell when the Indians had scored 157 for 8.

The K.C.C. were never in any need for hurry to score the runs. Donald Anderson, yet once again, came off with the bat and scored a polished 74 not out. Francis Lay, who survived innumerable l.b.w. appeals (at least one of which looked suspiciously like the real thing), helped greatly with a fast 34. The Indian total was overhauled at 6.05 p.m., ten minutes before time for drawing stumps.

RECREIO HELD

The death of his father, which occurred on Saturday, prevented H.L. Ozorio from participating in the Recreio - Civil Service match. I am sure all cricketers in the Colony will sympathise with him in his bereavement.

As the result of Ozorio's enforced absence, Recreio had to take the field without their usual contingent of bowlers. However, P.M.N. da Silva, who has proved himself the very backbone of their Second Eleven attack was brought up in his place. If Recreio failed to force a win it was not Silva's fault, as he took 4 wickets for 38 runs.

Batting first, the Civil Servants opened with Dickie Richardson and K. Attwell. The latter soon losing his wicket, Richardson then became associated with A.E. Perry in a partnership that produced 44 runs before Perry was caught and bowled by A.M. Prata for 28.

Richardson batted on stubbornly, but he was eventually bowled by Silva for an invaluable 31. Bill Colledge and Tim Fortescue helped to bring the total to 149, with 29 and 36 not out respectively.

Going in to bat at 4.40 p.m., Recreio needed only 37 more runs to win with 5 wickets in hand when stumps were drawn. To their total of 113 for 5 wickets J.M. Gosano contributed 21, G.N. Gosano 46 not out and M.A. Remedios 23. I think the reason for Recreio's failure to force a win was because of the steadiness of Perry and D. McLeellan who bowled unchanged throughout the Recreio innings.

JUNIOR MATCHES

In the Second Division the Kowloon C.C. and Craighower are running neck and neck for the championship. The latter have a slight edge over their rivals, however, as they have won all three matches whereas K.C.C., though they are at the top of the League Table have drawn one and won the rest of their four matches.

The match between the Craighower and Civil Service second strings saw a thrilling finish, the former winning by just one wicket. Once again A.M. Omar came off with the ball and was greatly instrumental in the Craighower victory. He took 6 wickets for 29 runs and Bill Way did his bit by taking 3 for 10.

Civil Service C.C. lost the wicket of A. Watson and F.E. Lawrence for only 16 runs. Then G. Ansle and J. Barrow put on 56 runs for the third wicket and when Barrow left the score stood at 72. Though Ansle continued batting and had scored 50 before being out, the rest of the Civil Service batsmen collapsed and were all out for only 97 runs.

Craighower just managed to score the necessary runs to win. They had 108 runs on the board for 9 wickets at the end of their innings. U.M. Omar scored 25. N. Broadbridge had to retire with a nasty cut on the face at 22, and Archie Hung contributed 21. Smith was the most successful bowler for the Civil Service, taking 5 wickets for 28 runs.

POLICE LOSE AGAIN

The Police do not seem to be over-keen this year. Last Saturday they played with only 8 men, and, as a result, lost to the K.C.C. in spite of a fine bowling performance by Danbrowsky who bagged 6 wickets for only 16 runs. The whole K.C.C. side were out for 134 half of which came off the bat of Kenneth Baxter.

The Police in their turn collapsed, only A.E. Carey and H. Tyler making any sort of a stand. The bowler responsible for this collapse was R. J. Fenton who took 5 wickets for 7 runs. The Police were all out for 74.

ABBAS IN FORM

Abe Abbas' splendid all round display gave Indian R.C. the victory over the University in a Second Division encounter at Sookunpoo. Together with H. Barma he was responsible for a second wicket partnership of 101 runs, of which his contribution was 69 runs. The Indians declared at 170 for 7 wickets.

Of the Varsity batsmen, only D. Chelliar, E. Mazyza, S. Amplanar and R.S. Gill were able to stand up to the I.R.C. attack, the whole side being out for exactly 100 runs. Abbas did extremely well to take 6 wickets for 34 runs. Young Archull, too, bowled splendidly to give away only 19 runs for his three wickets. This young bowler bears watching.

ENFORCEMENT OF RULING

Owners And Jockeys Are Warned

The attention of Owners and Jockeys is called to Rule of Racing No. 150, according to a circular issued by the Hongkong Jockey Club.

The rule reads as follows:—"The first four placed riders and any other rider if called upon to weigh in by the Stewards must immediately, after pulling up, ride his horse to the dismounting enclosure, dismount, in the presence of a Steward, and present himself

COLONY TENNIS CHAMPIONSHIPS

Competition To Start Next Month

Hongkong Cricket Club announce the forthcoming Colony Open Tennis Championships, which will start on Monday, March 10. All games will be played on the H.K. C.C. courts.

The usual open singles and doubles events will be held, and there are again a number of members' events. It has been decided by the committee that any surplus resulting from the tournament this year be donated to the Bomber Fund.

Small mementoes will be presented to winners of the various events in place of the trophies presented in previous years. The possibility of volunteer duties affecting the programme to a considerable extent has also been taken into consideration, and intending competitors are asked to notify the committee on which days of the week they will not be able to play as a result of these duties.

Ladies' Golf

Medal Competitions At Fanling Today

The usual Monthly Medal Competitions of the Royal Hongkong Golf Club (Ladies' Section) will be held on the Old and New Course at Fanling today. During the month a Bogey Competition will be held on the New Course.

Owing to the absence of so many lady golfers, the Annual Spring Meeting will be confined to one day, the date fixed being Tuesday, March 11.

Particulars will be posted later.

JANUARY COMPETITION

The Monthly Medal Competition (Bronze Division) on the New Course was won by Mrs. Greaves, 106-29-77. No cards were returned in the Silver Division.

The Bogey Competition held on the New Course on Jan. 21 was won by Mrs. Eldon Potter—4 down, (13 entries).

Mrs. Redmond qualified for the Captain's Cup on the Old Course, 98-16-32, and Mrs. Margaret on the New Course, 96-24-72.

The Running Medal on the New Course was won by Mrs. Redmond, 88-16-72.

CAPTAIN'S CUP

The Captain's Cup competition of the Royal Hongkong Golf Club played at Fanling on Feb. 1/2 resulted as follows:—

OLD COURSE:—G. T. Harrington 84-15-69. There were 22 entries.

NEW COURSE:—F. A. Redmond 78-11-67. There were eight entries.

to be weighed by the Clerk of the Scales."

As from Jan. 30 the foregoing rule will be strictly enforced. In the event of the disqualification of any of the first three placed ponies, failure to weigh in on the part of the rider of the pony officially placed fourth will entail the forfeiture of any stake money to which the owner of the pony would have been entitled.

First Round Of Colony Chess Tourney Today: Carvalho v. Sequeira

The first round of the Colony Chess Championship Tournament will be played today with D. E. de Carvalho and C. M. Sequeira, both former Colony champions, drawn against one another. In the other two matches, both of which will be played at the Peninsula Hotel, G. S. Coxhead meets E. Zimmermann, runner-up last year, and L. Karpovich meets K. Weiss.

PEN SKETCHES OF COMPETITORS

C. M. SEQUEIRA—a quiet, confident and thorough player, five times Colony Champion. Confesses that he feels quite safe with white but can never learn enough about play with the black pieces. Fond of the French and Reti defences and other P-K3 variations, he is an excellent middle game player, the best end game player in the Colony and is only equalled by Zimmermann as a Tournament player.

D. E. DE CARVALHO—three times Colony Champion, fourth in last year's Championship Tournament, keenest player in the Colony today and excels in the openings. Follows an orthodox style of play and is fond of the Ruy Lopez (or Spanish game). A strong offensive player, he is considerably weaker with black than with white. Varies his game with black and comes into his own in an end game with pawns and small pieces. Very liable to risk a drawn position for an uncertain win.

E. Zimmermann—runner-up in last year's Tournament to K. M. A. Barnett and the only representative of Victoria Chess Club in this year's championship. "Strong in the middle game and weak in end-game play, he is fond of Queen's gambit variations in the opening. An excellent Tournament player and likely to show always a better result than allowed on paper. Often plays French defence when black and is to a large extent a "book" player.

K. WEISS—third in last year's Tournament, he is a very hazardous player and over fond of King's gambit variations. Occasionally brilliant in attack, may cut up his opponent's position before the latter has had time to consolidate a moderate attack. Takes the offensive with black and often loses a game on a bad mistake while adopting such tactics. A much better player than he appears to be when judged by Tournament results.

G. S. COXHEAD—played on the London University team before coming out here and is making his first appearance in the local Championship. A very imaginative player, he has been described by an adversary of the Continental School as a typical English player! Strongest in the middle game and a dour fighter in end-games, where his accuracy surprises his opponents. Often takes the offensive when playing black and constantly varies his openings and defences.

L. KARPOVICH—making his first appearance in the Tournament, he has been described as a "colourless" player and, at the same time, as a "coming" player. Suffice to say, his best days are ahead, though it would be a very serious mistake for any one of his opponents to underestimate him in this year's competition. A typically defensive player, he watches his opponent and has a knack for detecting and exploiting mistakes. A very good end-game player, he is very, very patient. Likely to score wins and draws when least expected and a good Tournament player.

Jockey Club Selling Lotteries

Hongkong Jockey Club selling lotteries will be conducted on the Hongkong Derby, the Austral Derby and the Rookery-Hill Derby at the Club House, Happy Valley, at 6 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 14.

These are open to Members and their friends, but all non-members must be introduced by a Member and their names entered in the Visitors' Book.

Lists of Chances are available for signature at the Hongkong Club; the Club House, Happy Valley; and the Secretary's Office, 1st floor, Exchange Building.

Chances in any of these three lotteries are $5 each.

Colony Open Junior Chess Title

Fifteen players will participate in the Colony Open Junior Chess Championship, play in which competition will commence on Thursday, Feb. 13. The strongest entries are A.Y. Biriukoff, A. Kurrik and To Yu-lau, with a half-dozen of the other players only a shade below in playing strength.

The draw, made yesterday at a meeting of the Colony Chess Championship Committee, saw the competitors' names pulled out in the following order:—A. Kurrik, Un Kwai-yung, A. Morton, J. Greif, V. V. Kolatchoff, A.Y. Biriukoff, To Yu-lau, D. Drake, E. M. Petrov, A. C. Poupard, J. Tausz, R.C. Danenberg, J. H. d'Almeida, R.C. Gardner and William Lee.

FIRST ROUND

The first round games will, therefore, be: Kurrik v. Un Kwai-yung, Morton v. Lee, Gardner v. Greif, V. V. Kolatchoff v. d'Almeida, Danenberg v. Biriukoff, To Yu-lau v. Tausz, Drake v. Poupard, Petrov drawing the bye.

The draw for white and black will be announced with the issue of the round-by-round programme.

Games will be played on Tuesdays or Thursdays, the date set on the programme to be the final day for the commencement of the game. Games adjourned will

CHARITY MATCH

In the basketball double-header, sponsored by the Chung Sing Benevolent Society, played last night in the Chinese Y.M.C.A. gymnasium, both Sing Tao's men and women teams came out with flying colours.

The curtain raiser was the men's match, Sing Tao defeating Eastern by 37-18. The "Tiger" women followed suit, beating Ping Ching, this year's League champions, 31-20.

The proceeds of the match are for charity.

BRITISH UNITS PRESSING ON KEREN FOLLOWING FALL OF AGORDAT

Italians Also In Full Retreat In Abyssinia

CAIRO, Feb. 3 (Reuter)—British troops have captured the town of Agordat, an important strategic point in Eritrea on the railway leading to the Red Sea port of Massawa.

Announcing this success, yesterday's communique from British G.H.Q. says: "Yesterday morning British troops captured the town of Agordat, taking many hundreds of prisoners with guns and mechanical transport. Six Italian medium tanks, five light tanks and 15 guns were also destroyed."

The enemy sustained heavy casualties during the final attack carried out by the British and Indian troops with R.A.F. co-operation. By dusk, advanced elements of the British forces were again in close pursuit of the enemy withdrawing towards Keren.

In the Barent area operations are proceeding well, while further south, Biacundi is now in British hands with more prisoners from the Italian forces which were originally withdrawn from Umm Hagar.

TRANSPORTS ABANDONED
As the result of these actions, coupled with patriot activities, Italian troops withdrawing from the Wolkait district have been obliged to abandon the bulk of their mechanical transport and are now trying to make their way eastwards by mountain tracks.

In Abyssinia, following British pressure in the Metemma area, the enemy is also in full retreat on the Metemma-Gondar road, closely followed by British mobile troops.

Pressure by British patrols continues in all sectors in Italian Somaliland, across the Italian frontier, resulting in a general falling back of the enemy's advanced screen.

Regarding Libya, the communique says that concentration of British forces in the area is proceeding smoothly.

DRIVE ON KEREN

Following the capture of Agordat the British troops were yesterday pressing on towards Keren 50 miles further east on the railway to Massawa.

Keren is probably less well defended than Agordat but the tempo of the British advance is now expected to slow down somewhat as the mountainous nature of the terrain favours the defence.

Agordat was held by a large Italian garrison a number of whom evidently escaped despite the capture of several hundred prisoners.

A military spokesman in Cairo yesterday said the Italians at Berenti were now in "a very sticky position."

They are virtually surrounded though they may hold out for a few days yet.

ROAD SHELLED

Meanwhile British shells are raining down on the Metemma-Gondar road as British mobile forces chase the Italians into the interior of Abyssinia.

The Italians in this sector appear to have been taken by surprise as they had expected to be faced only with guerilla warfare by Ethiopian patriots and not with regular military action such as is now occurring.

SEVERE KNOCKS

Italy's East African Empire has taken severe knocks with the fall of Agordat, strategic rail on the route to the Red Sea, the falling back of the armed advance screen protecting Somaliland and the full retreat of the forces which had held up the British penetration into north-east Abyssinia from Metemma.

Italian forces seeking a way across the mountains in the Wal-kait district of Eritrea were forced to abandon most of their mechanical transport because of British and patriot activities.

GERMAN BOMBERS

The Axis High Command reports intervention by German bombers in the war in Libya but British headquarters in Cairo say that the concentration of British forces west of Derna is "proceeding smoothly" and R.A.F. fighters which maintained patrols over Libya suffered no loss.

It is considered probable, writes Reuter's air correspondent, that German aircraft attempting to harass the British advance in Libya are long-range bombers operating direct from Sicily, though it is possible for shorter-range aircraft to take part after refuelling at Libyan aerodromes.

RESPONSIBILITIES OF AUSTRALIA

MELBOURNE, Feb. 3 (Reuter)—Australian defence preparations must go ahead at full speed, declared the Air Minister speaking at Parale here yesterday.

He added: "A powerful country in the Pacific has joined in a military alliance with the enemy and we are not facing our responsibilities if we do not make ourselves safe."

J.B. PRIESTLEY & VISIT TO A "WINSTON TAVERN"

LONDON, Feb. 2 (BWS)—Broadcasting last evening Mr. J. B. Priestley described his visit to a "communal feeding centre" in Liverpool. "It was clean, bright and sensible and had some excellent mural paintings on the walls."

ITALO-GREEK HOSTILITIES

ADVANCE CLAIMED BY ATHENS

LONDON, Feb. 3 (Reuter)—All enemy attempts to counter-attack have been definitely foiled, stated the Athens radio.

Greek forces have steadily advanced and have taken up new lines and positions according to plan. These operations are beginning a new phase of the Greek advance across Albania.

The announcer continued: "The very considerable successes of our army in the sector of the front extending beyond Kilaure have obliged General Cavallero, the Italian C-in-C, to order a speedy evacuation of the Italian forces from this important area."

ITALIAN LOSSES

"Foreign observers express the view that any attempt on the part of the Italians to check the tide of Greek advance is doomed to failure because, after repeated disasters, their striking power has been very substantially reduced."

"The losses the Italian forces sustained during the latest counter-attack are estimated by these observers to be as high as 40 per cent. of their total effective."

FRANCO-GERMAN SITUATION

NO OVERT MOVE BY REICH ENVISAGED

MADRID, Feb. 3 (Reuter)—Hitler's reply to Marshal Petain's Christmas message is probably in the form of a short letter couched in cold terms, according to Spanish correspondents in Berlin.

Wilhelmstrasse circles are apparently extremely non-committal on the subject, but most Spanish observers in the German capital seem to agree that in spite of rumours of a possible renouement of the armistice by the Nazis, Germany does not contemplate any drastic action, at least for the present.

In this connexion, the Berlin correspondent of the Spanish agency, Eie, says: "It must not be forgotten that a great deal of Petain's strength lies in the discipline and calm shown by the French Colonial Army and the French Fleet."

CRITICAL HOUR

The correspondent of Alcazar declared that "Germany has no interest in complications that distract her attention in the critical hour of her preparations for attaining victory."

The Berlin representative of the A.B.C. expresses the view that Germany may be on the verge of an important decision vis-a-vis France. The affair is being expressed, he adds, in the German press as a struggle between Paris and Vichy.

The Arriba, which has always championed Franco-German collaboration, yesterday wrote sceptically on "these programmes of national revolution shouted from the radios and the Press."

HUNDREDS INJURED IN JOHANNESBURG RIOTS

Police Use Batons, Tear Gas To Disperse Rioters

JOHANNESBURG, Feb. 2 (Reuter)—Wild scenes were witnessed in Johannesburg during the week-end when thousands of Police, civilians and soldiers were involved in serious riots. Some 140 people, mostly soldiers, have been admitted to hospital up to the present.

Armoured cars toured the streets yesterday morning but the city is now quiet. Hundreds of sightseers, however, congregated outside the offices of the Vnderland—General James Hertzog's newspaper—and the offices of Transvaal, the Nationalist newspaper supporting the Republican policy. Both offices have been damaged.

The trouble originated on Friday night. Dr. van Rensburg, former Free State administrator and now leader of the Ossewabrandwag, addressed a cultural meeting. The Ossewabrandwag is an organisation of an extreme Republican nature. Dr. van Rensburg's meeting was not political and was generally orderly. Clashes, however, occurred in the streets when the meeting concluded. Soldiers and civilians were involved. Some of the latter were wearing beards which are favoured by members of the Ossewabrandwag.

POLICE INTERVENE

The Police intervened and the soldiers appeared to resent accepting orders from policemen not wearing orange shoulder "flashes." These flashes indicate that the wearers have volunteered for duty in any part of Africa; both the police and soldiers are entitled to wear them.

Trouble again broke out on Saturday night and continued on Sunday morning. The police then used tear gas and made several baton charges to disperse the crowds.

Automobiles were wrecked and a police van was set ablaze. Police reinforcements were sent from the outlying towns and the "First National Volunteer Brigade" was called out. Troops were summoned from military camps and assisted the military police to maintain order.

On Saturday Johannesburg was, as usual crowded with soldiers on leave and the trouble started when some of them saw a bearded man in a tramcar which they attacked.

NEWSPAPERS ATTACKED

Many shop windows were broken.

The soldiers attempted to reach the offices of the Ossewabrandwag—popularly supposed to be an anti-British organisation—which is in the Transvaal building but failed.

They then ran round the back of the buildings, breaking the plate-glass windows of the Vnderland, when the printing machinery was damaged.

The streets were in considerable turmoil and audiences from cinemas and theatres were added to the crowds when disturbances were at their worst.

East Anglia Bombed By Lone Raiders

LONDON, Feb. 3 (Reuter)—The German air force was not reported over any part of Britain on Saturday night and yesterday continued itself to "slight activity" by single aircraft over the eastern part of England, the Air Ministry announces.

A few bombs were dropped in East Anglia but did little damage and caused no casualties. It is officially announced.

During the afternoon some houses and shops were damaged and a small number of people injured by bombing at two places on the coast of Kent.

JUNK ROBBERY IN MARCH LAST YEAR RECALLED AT D.O. SOUTH

Arrest In Shaukiwan Teahouse Related

ABOUT 6 A.M. ON MARCH 2, 1940, LI YAU, THE MASTER OF A CLASS IV BOAT, SET SAIL FROM SHAUKIWAN WITH HIS CREW OF FOUR FOR THE NINE PINS GROUP OF ISLANDS TO PURCHASE FISH. Approximately four hours later, when his boat was about 600 yards to the east of Nine Pins, a Hoklo junk of about 50 piculs capacity approached from the opposite direction.

Shots were fired at Li's boat by the occupants of the other craft, and Li was ordered to haul down his sails. On him doing so, the strange craft came alongside his boat and four of its occupants boarded Li's craft. Two of the marauders were armed with rifles, one with a revolver, and the fourth with a chopper.

Li and his folks were searched and various sums of money and articles of clothing, including two suits of clothes and a jersey which Li was wearing at the time, were taken from them. The crew were then ordered into the hold and kept there for 15 minutes whilst the robbers ransacked the boat.

MADE NO REPORT

On their departure, they called to their victims to sail their boat away. Li set course for Nam-O, in the Chinese territory, to raise some money from his friends. He returned to Hongkong in September, 1940, but made no report of the robbery to the Police.

On Jan. 7 last, Li Yau was having tea in a teahouse in Main Rd., Shaukiwan, when he saw a man there whom, so it was alleged, he recognised as one of those who robbed his junk nearly a year ago. He went out and reported to a Chinese detective whom he knew, and together they went back to the teahouse, where the man was arrested. He was brought to the Shaukiwan Police Station, and transferred to the Water Police Station, Kowloon, the following day.

The above incidents were related to Mr. S. F. Balfour, at the District Office South, by Det.-Sgt. A. F. Estall, when committal proceedings were commenced against LAU YIN, travelling trader, on the charge of robbery by two or more. Defendant was alleged to have robbed, with five others not in custody, Li Yau, Kwok Sang, Wong Kau, and Li Pak, of $83 in Hongkong currency, various articles of clothing, and two anchors, on board a junk off the Nine Pins on March 2, 1940.

DID NOT FIT

Det.-Sgt. Estall went on to say that when the accused was brought to the Water Police Station he was found to be wearing a suit which did not fit him, but which Li Yau recognised as one of those stolen from him.

It was most unfortunate, said the prosecuting officer, that accused was seen by one of the junk's folks in Shaukiwan, and again while he was being transferred to Kowloon, in the custody of a Police officer as, in fairness to the defendant, no identification parade could be held.

Evidence was then given by Li Yau, Kwok Sang, Li Pak and Wong Kam, after which further hearing was adjourned.

FORTHCOMING WEDDINGS

The following forthcoming marriages were announced at the Registry yesterday:—

Mr. Ting Po-kwal, printer, of No. 6, Glenealy, and Miss Kwan Yue-mi, of No. 227, Hollywood Road; and

Mr. Mak King-chu, reporter, of No. 8, Hillwood Road, Kowloon, and Miss Luke Po-king, of the same address.

ACUTE RICE SHORTAGE IN KWANGTUNG

Committee Being Formed To Solve Problem

KWANGTUNG, WHICH USED TO BE SELF-SUPPORTING IN SO FAR AS RICE SUPPLIES WERE CONCERNED, IS NOW EXPERIENCING AN ACUTE SHORTAGE of this very essential commodity. According to the latest information, prices of this cereal have been rising by leaps and bounds, causing great distress among the people who are mostly of the farmer class.

To relieve the inhabitants and to solve this shortage problem, a committee comprising representatives from the different villages is being formed, with the support of the Kwangtung Provincial Government. The aim of this committee, it was learned, is the purchase of rice at more reasonable rates and to distribute it throughout the province.

Mr. Ng Ting-sun has, it was further learned, been invited to act as Chairman of the committee. An inaugural meeting of this committee has been arranged for the very near future and will take place at the Ho Ping Chamber of Commerce.

FOUR SECTIONS

On the formation of the new body, Kwangtung will be divided into four sections, namely, the Southern: Toisan, Ho Ping, Sun-wui, and Hok Shan; Chungshan and Shun Tak; and the East River district.

Hongkong, with its recent experience of rice profiteering, will watch the activities of this committee with great sympathy and interest.

The so-called acute shortage of rice supplies, and its resultant phenomenal increases in prices, in Hongkong about two months ago were not caused by difficulties of obtaining supplies but to downright profiteering, as the sudden drop in the prices, after Government have taken the necessary control measures, proved.

RESULT OF WAR

In many parts of China—both occupied and free—the shortage of this Chinese staple food was, however, the result of the ruthlessness with which the Japanese conducted their war of aggression. Civilian quarters and rice fields were among the main objectives of indiscriminate bombing by the Japanese Air Force.

Rice fields were harvested by the Japanese, with forced Chinese labour, and the grain confiscated for the Japanese troops.

MOTOR ACCIDENT AT TAIPO ROAD

Mr. Mackenzie, residing at No. 8, Carnarvon Building, has reported that another car crashed into the rear of his car on Sunday.

According to a Police report, Mr. Mackenzie was driving along Tai-po Road about 2 p.m. following a long stream of cars. When near the Kowloon Water Reservoir he applied his brakes as the car in front was slowing down, but private car 349 crashed into his rear. Both cars were damaged.

The King learns about bullet-making from a 15-year-old boy.

PASSPORT VISA FOR N.E.I.

A communiqué received yesterday from the Netherlands Consulate states that new regulations concerning the issuance of passport visas to travellers to the Netherlands Indies have come into force on Feb. 1, 1941. Henceforth nationals of all countries require passport visas for entry or transit.

All applications shall be submitted to the Department of Immigration by the Netherlands Consul concerned, and no visa will be given until the authorisation of the said department has been obtained.

Holders of labour permits and transit passengers, however, can obtain visas at once. Transit visas are valid for seven days, full visas for one journey.

The possession of a passport visa does not guarantee admittance to the Netherlands Indies. It is merely one of the conditions for entry, which remains subject to the decision of the Immigration Authorities.

The chancery fees to be levied are: for a full visa 6 guilders (at the present official rate of exchange H.K. $15.-), for a transit visa 60 guildercents (H.K. $1.50).

Crown Land Sale

THREE LOTS SOLD AT UPSET PRICE

Three lots of Crown land were sold yesterday, at the Public Works Department, to the respective original applicants at upset prices.

The first, known as Rural Building Lot No. 441, situated at Island Road near Stanley, with an area of about 15,700 square feet, was sold to Mrs. Enid Litton, of No. 68, Conduit Road, at the upset price of $3,925.

One of the Conditions attached to this sale was the special condition that "the Purchaser, his executors, administrators and permitted assigns shall not except by way of mortgage, assign, underlet or part with the possession of or otherwise dispose of the lot in question or any part thereof or any interest therein nor enter into any agreement to do so without the consent of the Governor unless and until he has expended upon the buildings on the lot the sum required in Clause 9 of the general conditions of sale" ($20,000).

The other two lots, known as 1Png Shan Inland Lots Nos. 7 and 8, at Castle Peak, each with an area of approximately 54,450 square feet, were both sold at their upset price of $2,723 per lot to Mrs. Ip Tang Hon Ying, the wife of Dr. Ip Kam-wah, of Kowloon.

A NEW DANCE

The Wolves of Tuscany, an Italian division, routed in Albania, has given rise to a new dance, which is coming into vogue in many European capitals, called the Tuscana or Tuscany Wolf Dance, states a London message.

It is added that the dance is easy to learn—one step forward and three steps backward.

WEATHER OF JANUARY

WIDE VARIATIONS RECORDED

The greater part of January was considerably warmer than usual, although there were two short cold spells on the 25th-26th and 30th-31st.

The weather was fair during the early part of the month, but became unsettled with frequent rain from the 12th to 24th. There was a heavy downpour on the 21st, and a thunderstorm on the 23rd; thunder is very unusual in January.

The last week of the month was cloudy but mainly dry. The development of an exceptionally intense anti-cyclone over China caused a marked fall in temperature on the 30th and 31st.

The mean temperature for the month was 64.7 deg. F, which is 5 deg. above normal. The maximum of 80.0 deg., which occurred on the 4th, is a record for January. A minimum of 48.3 deg. was recorded on the 31st. The mean relative humidity was 84% against a normal of 75%.

Only 85 hours of sunshine were recorded, the normal being 145 hours. The total rainfall was 3.81 inches, which is more than three times the normal. The greater part of this rain fell on the 21st.

The maximum wind velocity in a gust was 44 m.p.h. at 7 a.m. on the 23rd.

B. G. FIGURES

During the month of January 4.03 inches of rain were recorded at the Botanic Gardens, the biggest fall, 1.69 inches, being taken on Jan. 21/22. Falls were recorded on 13 other days.

DARING ROBBERY IN N.T.

Another daring robbery in the New Territories has been reported to the Police.

According to a report six masked men, armed with daggers, entered house No. 177 in the Great Well (Tai Tsang) Village, in the Ping Shan district, about 10.50 on Sunday night.

After ransacking the house the robbers decamped with $300 in Hongkong currency and several pieces of jewellery to the value of over $300, all the properties of the occupant, Leung Yuen-yau.

It is believed that the robbers escaped into Chinese territory.

CAN VICHY HOLD OUT?

POLITICAL developments over the week-end have taken a nasty turn for France, where the Vichy Government is undoubtedly facing a crisis. Herr Hitler's attempt to secure from France the co-operation which Marshal Petain and his more far-thinking colleagues have so far refused to give him was not altogether unexpected. In view of the desperate position which the Axis Powers are now placed in, it was obvious that pressure would sooner or later be applied on the Vichy Government where Herr Hitler, after weighing up the alternatives, probably feels convinced that the line of resistance will be weakest. For some days now, the Nazis have been using French hirelings and the German-controlled Paris press as a channel for paving the way for action against France and these methods have now reached a climax with the news of the formation of a new political party in France which smells to heaven of its Nazi source. The Nazis have been able to find the shadiest of journalists to develop this new political campaign and the Paris press has recently made the most scurrilous attacks on the Vichy Government.

THE POPULAR THEME in this press campaign has been a demand for the reinstatement of M. Laval, who according to the writers, had been in a position to obtain a number of concessions from Germany for France when he was thrown out and his work nullified. What the Nazi controlled press has carefully avoided mentioning is that M. Laval's negotiations with the Nazis must have provided for something in return for the concessions he was about to get from the Germans and that was that France should go to war with Britain. That was the snag that led to M. Laval's fall from grace at Vichy, where Marshal Petain and his colleagues would not countenance taking up arms against their former ally. And now the voice of the Nazis in Paris has come out with the statement that Herr Hitler has just come to realise that the dismissal of M. Laval was a personal affront to his dignity! M. Laval, therefore, must be reinstated and Marshal Petain must make a clean sweep of his Cabinet and form a Government that Germany can trust!

WHAT ARE the real motives behind this latest Nazi "Putsch"? In the first place it is obviously a continuation of the war of nerves which Herr Hitler has been indulging in. In this case, it is meant to keep the Vichy Government worried as to what the real German intentions are going to be. The formation of the new People's Party is obviously a prelude to the setting up of a puppet Government in Paris with M. Laval at its head, in opposition to the authority at Vichy, in the same manner as the Quisling regime was

EUROPEAN INJURED

While driving a motorcycle combination in Kowloon Tong Road at 8 p.m. yesterday, Mr. Stark collided with a stationary car, No. 4411, when turning into Kent Road. The cycle passenger, Mr. Stenick, was thrown out and was sent to hospital suffering from an injured leg.

HEAD INJURIES

Lui Chung-yan, aged about 40, was crossing the road outside Shan Kwong Hotel, Happy Valley, when he was knocked down by a car. He sustained head injuries and was removed to Queen Mary Hospital.

OTTAWA, Feb. 3 (Reuter).—A great army of armoured units is going overseas this year, declared Mr. Mackenzie King, the Canadian Premier, in a broadcast today.

established in Norway. Any idea of an immediate German invasion of unoccupied France must be discounted, as Herr Hitler is far from inclined to risk the chance of a rising against Germany inside France and in the French colonies. A puppet Government would put the onus for unrest on the French people themselves and might, at the same time, neutralise the American influence at Vichy where it is represented by the new United States Ambassador, Admiral Leahy. A situation similar to that which has arisen in Rumania might thus be created to Herr Hitler's advantage.

THE MAIN OBJECTIVE of this political manoeuvring is, of course, Herr Hitler's anxiety to get control of the French Fleet and the French naval bases to relieve the uneasy position which has been created for the Axis in the Mediterranean. This will facilitate their activities against the British Navy in that region and, in a lesser degree, against General Wavell's army, as Germany and Italy would then be able to cut the Mediterranean in two and make good use of Bizerte. There may still be people at Vichy who do not care which way the war turns, but there are no doubts about the feelings of the majority of Frenchmen and the way they will react to the formation of this new Nazi-sponsored party. The world outside, however, will not be permitted to hear of these reactions either from Berlin or Rome or through the Paris radio, but it is hardly credible that the French people, who realise that their only hope of liberty lies in a British victory, will submit to these new tactics of the Germans and as long as Vichy holds out firmly all good Frenchmen can be sure of obtaining the help and succour they need from Britain and her allies.

Strip Poker With A Vengeance

"What do you want?" asked the Bench sergeant of a certain Police station in Hongkong, on Sunday night, of the Chinese who stood before him.

"I want a pair of trousers," replied the man who had on his shirt, collar, tie, shoes and socks.

The request puzzled the sergeant until, on looking over his desk, he saw to his surprise that the man before him was minus his nether garments.

"Where are your trousers?" queried the Police officer.

"I have been gambling and lost everything," said the man.

"When I could not pay what I owed, they made me take off my trousers."

The trouserless man left the Police station garbed in his shirt, with collar and tie, shoes and socks, and a pair of Chinese style trousers which the sergeant dug up for him.

D.E.I. WILL DEPEND ON SMALL, SWIFT CRAFT TO DEFEND COASTLINE

SOERABAYA, Java, Jan. 19.—One of the primary considerations of an invader of the Netherlands Indies would be the Dutch naval forces.

The coastline of Java is indented with numerous small harbours. A blockade would necessarily engage a major portion of an enemy fleet, as thousands of sea miles around the coasts would have to be patrolled.

From a defensive standpoint, small, swift vessels are best adapted to blanket defence of the Indies. Naval leaders have advocated the building of many harbour defence and types of ships of the hit and run variety instead of bigger craft.

TORPEDO BOATS

Consequently a large number of motor torpedo boats are sliding down the ways in the naval dockyards of Sourabaya. This water scorpion fleet embodies special features that renders it ideal for coastal and harbour patrol work.

The vessels are armed with two 10-inch torpedo tubes, four machine guns mounted on double swivels, and have a top speed of 40 knots. The hulls are steel over all, and are powered by three airplane motors, enabling use of triple screws.

The Dutch navy does not depend upon capital ships. A number of outdated cruisers are in the Indies, but function chiefly as training ships. The building of new larger vessels is considered impractical.

MODERN DESTROYERS

A number of modern British type of destroyers are based at Sourabaya, but one of the greatest dangers to an invading fleet might be the Dutch submarine force.

Eighteen up-to-date 100-ton under-sea craft are in the Indies. They have a surface speed of 21 knots, and are equipped with eight large size torpedo tubes, one 3.5-inch gun, and two 40-millimeter anti-aircraft machine guns. Most of the new types have mine laying facilities and wire net cutting shears forward on the bow and on the sides.

Drydocks and repair shops at Sourabaya, as well as schools for sailors and officers covering all phases of naval warfare.

NAVY AIR ARM

The air arm of the navy is being readied for action as quickly as possible. Full strength is based on the delivery of PEY3 flying boats from America.

Present equipment consists chiefly of Dornier flying boats built by Germany for Holland before the war.

Though these were tops at one time, they now are regarded as partially obsolete.

At Moro Krabangan, the naval flying base at Sourabaya, additional hangars are being built rapidly. It can be assumed that the new hangars will accommodate the ordered PEY3's coming from the United States. There are more than a few hangars to be built according to naval sources.

FLYING BOATS

Dutch Kokker flying boats make up several of the present squadrons, but these, too, cannot be looked upon as the latest in naval aircraft.

DEBATE ON THE GOLDEN AGE

At a debate held in the Tang Chi-nong Library last night, the motion "That this house believes the Golden Age was in the Past" was defeated by an overwhelming majority.

The speakers were Mr. H. C. Macnamara and Mr. Y. F. Chan for the Hongkong Legal Debating Society, and Mr. Leslie Sung and Mr. S. K. Gan represented the H.K.U. Arts Association.

Among those who spoke from the floor were Messrs. H. L. McKenzie, Percy Chen, D. McCallum, and D. Brittain Evans.

Prof. R. K. M. Simpson was in the chair and the debate was attended by a good number of members of the Hongkong Legal Debating Society, following their annual dinner.

GREEK STRATEGY IN WAR OF MOVEMENT DISCUSSED BY MILITARY EXPERT

The view that as long as the war in Albania continued to be one of movement the Italians could not hope to stem their retreat was expressed in a broadcast from London yesterday by M. STAVREDI, a military commentator, when he discussed the progress of the war in Albania.

The speaker stated that the Italians would no doubt prefer a war of position, but the Greeks insisted on making it one of movement. In a war of position, the Italian troops would have been able to organise their lines of communication and supply and food and munition would have been available to the soldiers in the front line.

ITALIANS DISORGANISED

The Greek command had set itself the task of destroying Italian supply bases and how far they had succeeded could be judged from the statement of an Italian prisoner that several of their important supply bases had now been disintegrated.

"The Italians were completely disorganised in their withdrawal before the first Greek advance," said M. Stavredi. "Then General Soddou attempted to stabilise the position. This was what his predecessor intended to do himself and reports now state that this general challenged General Soddou to a duel for having stolen his plan of campaign."

"In any case the rapid Greek advance prevented General Soddou from carrying out somebody else's plan and the Italian armies were kept moving at a brisk pace. As the winter approached, the Greek advance slowed down and the Italians made yet another attempt to stabilise their line."

"This time it was by a line running east to Klissura and then turning north. This line was however first broken at the western end and then again near its head by the Greek capture of Klissura."

ANOTHER CHANGE

"At this juncture there was another change in the command and General Cavellero took General Soddou's place. It was after this that the Italian counter-attack began. Perhaps if Gen. Soddou survives long enough, we shall hear of another challenge to a duel on the subject of this plan of campaign."

"In the meantime, these Italian counter-attacks had not been successful," said M. Stavredi, who earlier in his remarks had referred to this subject when he said that the Greek army continued under the command of General Papagos and had won fresh successes and that the Italian efforts had resulted in even heavier losses than before."

The speaker commented on statements made by an Italian officer who had been taken prisoner that the Italian soldiers were in a pliable state and hungry. This was a factor which was always calculated to sap the morale of any army.

"All this seems to show that the Italian soldiers have no great confidence in their leaders," said M. Stavredi. "Besides, General Wavell's continued advance must have been as discouraging to the Italians as it was encouraging to the Greeks."

ITALIAN AIR ACTIVITY

Referring to the fact that the only Italian air activity was being directed on Corfu, the speaker declared that this was all the more extraordinary because Corfu had been completely demilitarised. He traced the history of the island

JAPANESE SCORE FIRST DIPLOMATIC SUCCESS FOR LONG PERIOD

LONDON, Feb. 3 (Reuter).—By imposing their arbitration on the French in Indo-China and on Thailand, the Japanese have scored the first diplomatic success for a long period, writes THE TIMES Diplomatic correspondent.

They may also have strengthened their military and naval position in the South Seas—that vague and elastically defined region which they would like to earmark as under the Japanese sphere of influence.

SHANGHAI MUNICIPAL ELECTION ON APR. 10-11

CHUNGKING, Feb. 3 (Central).—A Shanghai message states that the Shanghai Municipal Council has fixed April 10 and 11 for this year's election of the Council.

With the approach of the date of election the Japanese are making preparations to renew their attempt to increase their representation on the Council.

Keen competition in the election is expected but competent observers believe that the British and Americans will still maintain their dominant position.

Though the Japanese Ratepayers' Association decided at a special meeting yesterday not to attend the next meeting of the Shanghai Municipal ratepayers' fixed for Feb. 5 it is learned that their final attitude has not yet been decided upon.

Meanwhile, the Shanghai Municipal Council is taking strict precautions regarding the next ratepayers' meeting.

Japanese Incendiary Active

SHANGHAI, Feb. 3 (Reuter).—While the city was soundly asleep, a party, alleged to be Japanese, commandeered a British-owned taxi at 3 a.m. today, threw out the Chinese driver, drove to the race course and attempted to burn down the stand where the ratepayers will be re-meeting on Feb. 5.

However, the Fire Brigade put out the fire before serious damage was done although the taxi, which was first set alight to light up the match, is a total loss.

The party fired several shots into the stand before leaving.

A Shanghai Municipal Council spokesman reveals that two Japanese were involved and that they escaped to the badlands in another commandeered British-owned taxi after an exchange of shots with White Russian sentries.

SINGLE GERMAN RAIDERS OVER BRITAIN

Single German raiders flew over Britain yesterday, states a London message.

In the London district one child was killed and several houses damaged.

Other aircraft appeared over East Anglia and the South-East.

A raider which dived out of the clouds on a South-East town was hit by A. A. fire.

There was no enemy air activity over Britain on Sunday night and this was the 13th raid free night out of 14.

JALAVA MASSACRE:

IRON GUARD REBELS TO FACE MILITARY COURT

ROME, Feb. 3 (Reuter).—The band of rebel Iron Guards who massacred 92 people in the Forest of Jalava near Bucharest on Jan. 21 have been arrested, says a Bucharest despatch.

They will appear before a military tribunal. An official communiqué issued in Bucharest yesterday states that all was quiet in the country.

The authorities, it adds, are still seeking out and arresting "those responsible for the trouble" and a large quantity of materials and merchandise stolen by the rebels have been seized.

"In future, I will be implacable and will not tolerate any disorder," declared General Antonescu, Rumanian Dictator-Premier, at a press interview yesterday.

"Nobody would dare repeat the recent attempt to overthrow the established order."

He added: "I swear nobody in the world will hinder me from

It is not in the Japanese character to arbitrate without hope of remuneration. The price charged may give them control of naval and air bases in Indo-China or Thailand which would put them in a better position to attack or threaten Singapore or the Dutch East Indies should their Axis friends invoke their intervention.

The Government of the Netherlands and the Dutch East Indies evidently foresee some such denouncement of peace negotiations. They instructed their minister to inform the Japanese Government that they reject any suggestion of the incorporation of the Dutch East Indies in any new order in Eastern Asia under the leadership of any Power.

NOT TOO CLEAR
Mr. Matsuo's speech was not too clear on this head but experience of Japanese methods shows the Dutch Government is well advised in taking the least favourable interpretation of his utterances.

As for China, it is possible that the Japanese may yet offer direct negotiations with Chungking at the expense of their puppet Wang Ching-wei, but despite his recent difficulties with Communists, Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek is not in the least likely to oblige Japan by peace that left her in control of any part of China south of the Great Wall.

For a long time to come the Japanese forces, estimated to be a million strong, will remain mired in the Chinese swamp.

The MANCHESTER GUARDIAN writes: "Japan is now bent on acquiring power throughout the Western Pacific. The Japanese must release themselves from the Chinese War, as from possible Russian action, if they are to push forward with an easy mind."

JAPAN'S TOOL
"They go on hoping the Chungking Government will collaborate or come to terms with Japan's tool at Nanking. They are now encouraged by the unhappy quarrel between Generalissimo Chiang and the Communist Fourth Army which is the worst breach made in Chinese unity in nearly four years of war."

"The Chinese must do their utmost to restore unity. Germany will try to push Generalissimo Chiang along the anti-Communist road while at the same time they tell Russia that Japan no longer follows on her frontiers her strongly anti-Communist policy."

OFFICERS' TRAINING SCHOOL AT MHOW

BOMBAY, Feb. 3 (Reuter).—Applications are being received from all parts of India for entry into the recently established Officers' School at Mhow where an intensive six months' training course is given.

During a visit to the school, says Reuter's Special correspondent, "I saw raw recruits learning the rudiments of military knowledge and talked with some of the senior cadets, fit and self-confident, and eagerly looking forward to the day they leave the school and receive commissions."

"Full strength of the school consists of six companies of about 100 each. It is planned to turn out 1,200 cadets annually."

ALL SPORTS
"In addition to military training, great stress is laid by the authorities for physical fitness and extensive facilities for all kinds of sports are provided."

"I inspected the comfortable living quarters and messrooms and also visited the well-equipped gymnasium and lecture halls."

"Later I went out to the camp where the senior cadets were training. They had just returned from tactical exercises. All were pictures of fitness and bubbling over with enthusiasm for a new life. All told me their main ambition was to go to the Middle East and their only anxiety was that they might be too late."

More Local Successes For Greeks

ATHENS, Feb. 3 (Reuter).—More local successes and the capture of prisoners are announced in a Greek communiqué issued last night.

The whole mountain range north of Kilsura, nine miles long, is now in Greek hands after successful fighting in the last few days which took place principally between Kilsura and Berat guarding the approaches to Valona and Elbasan.

The initiative remains in Greek hands despite the recent desperate Italian counter-attacks.

TRIBUTE TO GREEKS

The American Help for Greece Organisation has sent a message to the Greek Premier, M. Koryzis, paying tribute to the glorious way in which the Greek people were fighting for independence, states a London message.

It is added that Mrs. Roosevelt has become a member of the National Citizens' Committee to deal with the drive for $10,000,000 for war relief for Greece.

YUNNAN TAKES ALERT & WATCHFUL ATTITUDE

Yunnan is taking an alert and watchful attitude towards the Japanese mediation in the Thai-French Indo-China dispute. Strict vigilance is maintained on the Yunnan-French Indo-China border against a possible Japanese invasion.

Interviewed by the TA KUNG PAO correspondent, General Lung Yun, Chairman of the Yunnan Provincial Government, declared: "The ulterior motive of Japan's mediation is apparently to bring the entire Tonkin area under her control and to enlarge her sphere of influence in French Indo-China."

SHAI EDITOR MURDERED

COWARDLY ATTACK: SHOT FROM BEHIND

SHANGHAI, Feb. 3 (Reuter).—Ching Hua-ting, editor of the Shunpao, was shot dead at 4.30 a.m. today while passing the Ambassador Ballroom with friends.

He was hit by three bullets, one in the head and two in the chest. There are no arrests yet.

Ching Hua-ting was one of 83 black listed by the Nanking regime last year. He was armed with two automatics at the time but had no chance to use them, being shot at close range from behind.

He was 40 years of age and has been with the Shunpao for 10 years.

The Shunpao is published by Mr. N. F. Allan, American member of the Municipal Council, and registered with the American authorities.

Indian Arms Production

Factories Working At Full Blast

BOMBAY, Feb. 3 (Reuter).—Black smoke was belching from all chimneys in Jubbulpore gun-carriage factory as I passed its carefully-guarded gates to be shown the huge workshops where carriages of India's guns are constructed, writes Reuter's special correspondent.

When I entered the workshops the roar of powerful machinery was almost deafening.

Amid the fierce glow of numerous furnaces skilled Indian workmen were manipulating red-hot metal with a casualness born of long practice.

I saw one of the latest guns complete with a new carriage. The old wooden spoked wheels are abolished. The formidable weapon that I saw was fitted with heavy pneumatic tyres. All the guns fitted with carriages in the factory are made in India.

OUTPUT TREBLED
Since the outbreak of war, the output of the factory is two or three times the pre-war production while the number of workmen is more than doubled.

Production is almost continuous, ranging from 20 hours a day in some shops to nearly 24 in others. While the main work is the production of gun carriages, the factory also makes a wide variety of other articles, including field cookers for the Indian Army. These cookers are now being produced in thousands.

S.A. TROOPS CONQUER DESERT WASTES

WAR CARRIED INTO ABYSSINIA

CAIRO, Feb. 3 (Reuter).—After expelling the Italian invaders from all parts of Kenya, South African troops have entered enemy territory for the first time, writes Reuter's Special correspondent with the South African Forces inside Abyssinia.

These lean, brown warriors, hardened to sweltering heat, have reached the country which for six months has been their goal.

They comprise from Cape hamlets, the Transvaal high veld, the Natal coast and the Free State plains.

With machine-guns ready to spray the elusive Italian native irregulars, armoured cars in the desert, east of Lake Rudolf, trundled across the trackless wastes into Abyssinia.

NORTH OF BORDER

Infantrymen who had already tasted excitement at the Battle of El Yibo went bucketing across rough country in three-ton troop carriers with songs on their lips, realising that at last they were north of the border and inside Abyssinia.

The South Africans had to force their way across extremely difficult country, their course lying across deserts and areas where volcanoes now extinct, had once poured out millions of tons of lava, into a region rarely visited by the white man.

Probably to the astonishment of the Italians, who thought this an impossible military feat, they are now not only knocking at the door of Abyssinia but have crossed its stronghold and are nearer Addis Ababa than Nairobi.

U.S. COURT TO HEAR WIDLER'S CASE FEB. 11

CHUNGKING, Feb. 3 (Central).—In connexion with the grand larceny case in Shanghai in which Elly Widler, a Swiss, removed approximately 500 tons of copper in coins and ingots estimated to be worth $20,000,000 from the Commercial Express and Storage Company and fled into the Japanese-controlled Hongkew area, a Shanghai dispatch states that the American Trading Company, Federal Incorporated U.S.A., owner of the copper stolen, has filed a civil suit with the U.S. Court in Shanghai against the Commercial Express and Storage Company.

The American Trading Company demands U.S. $155,077.69 as compensation for damage.

It is learned that the U.S. Court will hear the case on Feb. 11.

It may be recalled that Wilhelm Bendler, a German alleged to be the accomplice of Widler, was arrested by the S.M.C. police.

MILITARY INEFFICIENCY OF ITALIAN ARMY IN AFRICAN CAMPAIGN

LONDON, Feb. 3 (Reuter).—News of the capture of Agordat and of a further advance on several fronts in Abyssinia is notable proof, if such indeed is required, of British military power and the tenacity of British military leadership against the Italian East African Empire, writes Reuter's Military correspondent.

In exact proportion it is also a very clear commentary on the military inefficiency of the Italian army. The selection of British lines of advance against so vast a territory as that of Abyssinia displays a very high level of strategical judgment.

For instance, the line of advance from Kassala strikes by the shortest route at the most decisive point in Italian possessions in East Africa — the great port of Massawa.

For nearly 60 years Massawa has been the centre of their Government and might have been called their base if such a term has any meaning for the Italians in Abyssinia, cut off as they are by sea from all communication with the outside world.

The capture of Massawa will be a tremendous moral blow to the Italians in Abyssinia, for Eritrea is by far the most loyal part of their hold in East Africa.

VALUE TO NAVY
In addition to the capture of Massawa will be of considerable value to the British Navy and will facilitate, if necessary, the supply of arms and equipment which the Abyssinians may require for the redemption of their country from the Italian grasp.

The success at Agordat and the British pursuit of the Italians as far as Keren, points to an early attack on Asmara itself, which is a very important Italian hill station from which the British can descend upon Massawa.

The retreat of the defenders of Barenti is now gravely imperilled and they will probably be able to escape only by the abandonment of their wheeled and mechanised transport.

SWEEPS OVER CHANNEL

Over 100 British fighters took part in sweeps over the Channel on Sunday, states a London message.

Barge concentrations at Boulogne were attacked after which offensive patrols were carried out off the north French coast.

Three Messerschmitts were shot down.

CHINA'S UNSUNG HEROES IN NORTHWEST

Chinese factory workers, technicians and proprietors in the Northwest are unsung heroes, declared Mr. Chang Chi-yung of the Industrial and Mining Readjustment Office of the Ministry of Economic Affairs upon his return in Chungking after an investigation trip to Shensi.

Mr. Chang said that Mr. Chang Tze-shun, proprietor of the Northwest Manufacturing, and several hundreds of his workers removed thousands of tons of machinery across the Yellow River at night recently when the place where his factory was located was threatened by Japanese invasion. The factory was re-established in a safe place in the rear and resumed work promptly. Today it is operating day and night to speed up production to meet wartime demand.

Mr. Han Wei-hsi, a native of Shensi, has established nine factories with his own money.

MILL IN CAVE

To avoid Japanese aerial bombs many of the factories, such as the Sun Sun Cotton Mill, are in caves, and all workers and technicians work extremely hard, Mr. Chang revealed.

Mr. Chang saw great potentialities in the cotton, flour, wool, hemp, oil, paper, iron and coal industries in the Northwest. He said that a Northwest branch of the Industrial and Mining Readjustment Office has been established to give technical guidance and the Chinese government is inviting capital investments in the development of the natural resources in the Northwest. ROUND THE POLICE COURTS

AT CENTRAL

BULLY IN COURT

"What right has a big man like you to strike a small girl like that?" This question was put to Lo Hoi, 32, firewood dealer, by Mr. H. G. Sheldon yesterday, when the former was charged before him with assaulting a 14-year-old girl, Chan Chung-kwai, at Gloucester Road on Feb. 2.

Outlining the case, Det.-Sgt. J. K. Bentley said that at 10.50 a.m. on Sunday, Mr. A. Grainger and Mr. C. Grocock of His Majesty's warship, saw defendant chasing complainant down Gloucester Road. Overtaking the girl in front of the China Fleet Club, defendant struck the girl's head, with the result that the latter fell, her face hitting a stone.

Pleading guilty, defendant stated that he struck the girl, because she had stolen some of his firewood, and that he had paid a compensation of 10 cents to her on the request of the two European witnesses.

SENT TO SESSIONS

Ho Sul-wah, 28, Water Police seaman W77, Lam Fook, alias Keung Fook, 30, Tsang Wing-pai, 34, Wong Wai-pang, alias Chan Hung, 36, and Lau Lim, 36, all unemployed, charged with, together with two others not in custody, robbing Chan Kai of $145 and Ho Yui of $1.50 at No. 359 Lockhart Road, first floor, on Jan. 4, were committed to the Criminal Sessions by Major MacLachlan yesterday.

First defendant was represented by Mr. J. M. d'Almeida Remedios. All defendants reserved their defence.

Sgt. Channan Singh, Police Reserve No. 214, who arrested first defendant, gave evidence. Wong Kuen, detective testified to the arrest of the other four defendants.

Det. Sub-Ins. W. N. Darkin prosecuted.

LOITERER GAOLED

"He did not steal anything, but might have if an A. A. man had not come along," remarked Det.-Sgt. W. Summers before Mr. Sheldon yesterday when O Ha-tak, 35, unemployed, was charged with loitering in the Pedder Street car park on Saturday.

Defendant was sentenced to one month's hard labour.

A. R. P. WARDEN CHARGED

Two A. R. P. wardens, one as complainant and the other defendant, appeared before Mr. Sheldon yesterday in connection with obtaining a suit of clothing by false pretences.

Defendant was Li Man, 22, who was alleged to have obtained a suit of clothing from Wong Ping-wa, 29, on Nov. 8 last at No. 4, Sau Wah Fong, by falsely pretending that he was in a position to obtain employment for the latter at the Tai Koon Movie Picture Co., whereas he was not in such a position, and with intent to defraud.

Det.-Sgt. Bentley said that defendant made the acquaintance of complainant through a friend of the latter.

Defendant was remanded for 48 hours.

AT KOWLOON

WOMAN SHOP-LIFTER

Convicted for the second time, a 31-year-old woman, Cheung So, of No. 333, Reclamation Street, was sentenced to six months' hard labour and placed under Police supervision for two years by Mr. K.M.A. Barnett yesterday for larceny of 40 yards of cloth.

Sgt. Groves, prosecuting, said that defendant went to a shop at No. 415, Shanghai Street about 2 p.m. on Sunday when the shop was crowded with customers. She took a roll of cloth from the wooden shelf and hid it under her shawl. This was seen by two foks of the shop who arrested her. Accused had a previous conviction for a similar offence.

GAMBLERS RAIDED

Appearing before Mr. Barnett yesterday on a charge of keeping a pai kau gaming house at No. 31, Shanghai Street, Ng Ching, 43, was fined $30.

Eleven others, who were charged with gambling, were each fined $1. The sum of $2.64 picked up was ordered to be placed into the Poor Box.

Defendants were arrested in the course of a raid carried out

FRENCH AT MARTINIQUE HUNTING FOR SECRET NAZI BROADCASTING STATION

NEW YORK, Jan. 22.—French residents in Martinique informed me that a secret German radio station is believed to have been operating regularly in Martinique since September 1939 when the war began, writes Peter C. Rhodes in the Manila Bulletin.

While I was in Martinique, French warships in the harbour tried to triangulate and spot the supposed broadcaster with their wireless sets, but failed.

Repeated searches for the secret station for more than 16 months have failed, it was said, because the French have never had suitable mobile "spotter" units to track down over jungle, mountain and cane fields of this 385-square-mile island the person or persons operating the station.

LOW POWERED

Persons who had tried to locate the station described it as a low-powered short-wave set with a maximum radius of 500 miles.

Berlin, it was noted, has been possibly the best-informed capital in the world concerning events in Martinique since the war began. My informants were of the opinion that "spot" messages were being picked up and relayed by some more powerful station located somewhere in the mountains or jungles of the South American mainland.

American officials in San Juan operating a new powerful radio detection station there said they had heard "four or five" similar small stations operating in the Caribbean area.

JAMMED OFF THE AIR

They also claimed that important American broadcasts, including some news broadcasts, have been jammed off the air throughout the Caribbean. They said this was accomplished by two powerful stations in Germany simultaneously calling in on the U. S. wavelength.

There are no official German armistice commission officials in Martinique as there are at Algiers, Oran and Dakar. The French said they never agreed to such a commission in their armistice terms and the United States attitude was believed to have prevented the Germans from making such a demand. Whatever observers the Germans have on the island operate under cover. The French, I was told, were watching suspects as much now as during the war.

FOUR GROUPS

Four groups of individuals are being watched by the French as potential fifth columnists among which might be German agents:

1. Former enemy aliens. There were four Germans and three Italians residing in Martinique when their countries declared war.

2. A number of foreigners—about 30—from European countries, who emigrated to Martinique in the decade preceding the war. The largest group is Belgian, of whom there are eight.

3. A number of Syrians, at least 50, who migrated to Martinique as subjects of a French protectorate, and have taken over the entire itinerant peddlers' trade of the island.

4. A group of 45 foreigners who had fought in the French army up to the defeat as anti-Nazi refugees and who managed to get to Morocco and aboard the first troop transport to Martinique.

STRONGEST ARM

The strongest arm the Germans might use to keep local administrators in line is the presence of their families in France. Most of the sailors, the vast bulk of white forces guarding the island, come from Normandy, Brittany and Picardy, all German-occupied areas, and their families are still there. One naval commander told me his home was occupied by German staff officers, while his wife and eight children had to live elsewhere.

None of these officers were pro-German. On the contrary, they expressed keen personal resentment for what the German occupation has cost their families, as well as their country.

SOUND REASONS

One officer, pointing out sound reasons why it was highly unlikely the Germans would ever make a stab at Martinique said:

"Actual occupation would be a disaster for the Germans, and they know it. Propaganda, however, is one of their deadliest weapons. If the Germans could incite Americans and French to fight for this island, they would reap a harvest of anger and hate in Europe as well as South America against the 'Yankee money bag.' They would use it to destroy the influence of your good neighbour policy. France and America should not forget this. I am convinced any German activity here and elsewhere is directed to that end."

DANGERS OF JAPAN'S MEDIATION IN THAI-INDO-CHINA DISPUTE

Dangers inherent in the Japanese mediation between THAILAND and INDO-CHINA were pointed out in messages sent by THE TIMES Singapore correspondent.

Both Thai and Indo-Chinese circles, wrote the correspondent, are fully aware of the potential dangers in the Japanese mediation.

Latest information suggests that Thai's losses, particularly aerial and naval, were heavier than admitted in Thai communiques. Presumably that caused Thai's willingness to accept the Japanese offer of mediation for which Thai realises that Japan may attempt to secure a reward.

This reminds the Thais of a fable about two fishermen quarrelling over a fish caught between them when a third intervened awarding head and tail for both while he himself carried off the best middle part.

Observers in Singapore, "the Times correspondent continued, believe that Japan's mediation is closely linked with an Axis plot which is calculated to extend the war in the Far East soon. The details of the plot are yet unknown but it is significant that the German News Agency quoted messages showing Germans watching closely events in East Asia.

TO INTERVENE

Sufficient available facts indicate that the aim of Japan's mediation is not so much re-establishing peace in the region of dispute as getting opportunities to intervene in the affairs between the disputing countries, gaining an advantageous position for advancing southward and thereby satisfying the partners of the triple alliance.

If by adroit diplomatic and military moves Japan can establish a strong position in Indo-China and Thailand, Japan's preparation for a campaign against Britain by attacking Burma, and Malaya will meet Nazi wishes. Consequently certain quarters consider Malaya is in real danger of being involved in a war during the next few months. Though today Japanese forces are not formidable in Indo-China, Japanese concentrations on Hainan Island nevertheless constitute the jumping off base for backing further Japanese demands to Indo-China with Vice-Admiral Jean Decoux.

JAPAN'S REWARD

The correspondent further was of the opinion that Japan's reward may constitute heavy obligations imposed upon Thai for stationing Japanese troops in the disputed frontier regions "for maintaining order" as a preparatory step to make both Thai and Indo-China puppet states in the Japanese "New Order" with neither able effectively to thwart Tokyo. Both can place obstacles and difficulties in the way of Japan's advance but can scarcely stop Japan if Tokyo is prepared to risk the consequences.

All these actual and potential developments, concluded the correspondent, constitute the greatest significance for Malaya. Japan may make "an attempt to outflank the guns of Singapore" and "get at Singapore by the back door." Fortunately the back door is well protected. (Central News).

S.A.A.F. BOMB ASSAB

BRITISH MAINTAIN AIR OFFENSIVE

CAIRO, Feb. 3 (Reuter).—Bombers of the South African Air Force operated on Sunday in support of the British advance in several parts of Italian East Africa.

They attacked Assab, Italy's second Eritrean port, where a store and dumps were hit, concentrations of motor transport at Mega (Yavello), and aerodromes at Zula where direct hits were obtained on military buildings.

An R.A.F. communique reports that offensive fighter patrols, bombing raids and reconnaissance flights were continued throughout the Middle East and from all of them all aircraft returned safely.

Normal fighter patrols were maintained over Libya. Two damaged enemy aircraft were observed on the ground at Barce.

A number of enemy aircraft which flew over Malta were attacked by British fighters and two Fiat bi-plane fighters were destroyed.

SEIZURE OF UNOCCUPIED FRANCE FEARED

LONDON, Feb. 3 (Central)—An atmosphere of depression is learned to be pervading the Vichy Government circles following the receipt by Marshal Petain, through Comte de Brinon, French Ambassador in Paris, of the five-week belated reply from Chancellor Hitler to his memorandum sent to Berlin last Christmas. Hitler's reply is stated to be characterised by vexation, displeasure and impatience.

In his message to Chancellor Hitler, it may be recalled, Marshal Petain agreed on an economic collaboration with Germany for the duration of the armistice, but rejected Hitler's demands for free passage of German troops through unoccupied France, German use of French Mediterranean bases and collaboration with the French Fleet.

Before Comte de Brinon telephoned the contents of Chancellor Hitler's reply to Vichy, according to reports, the French Ambassador in Paris conferred with Herr Abetz, German Ambassador in Paris, and General Stulpnagel, Commander of the German Forces in occupation of France. The content of the reply has not yet been divulged officially, but the gloomy attitude at Vichy forebodes ill.

SHORT AND CURT

The reply is stated to be short and curt but not an ultimatum. It is believed to contain among others the following demands: (1) Important changes in the Vichy Cabinet by the dismissal of several Ministers accused as pro-British; and (2) Reinstatement of Laval who is regarded by Germany as the only Frenchman fully understanding the significance of the "New Order in Europe."

It is stated that Vichy is now studying Hitler's reply, planning means of tiding itself through the difficulties. As a result of the pro-British attacks in the Cabinet, it is believed that Flandin, the Foreign Minister, may resign, according to the Associated Press.

Meanwhile, observers see increasing signs that Germany may be planning a total seizure of unoccupied France.

Firstly, it is stated that there are strong mechanized panzer units in France.

Secondly, Abetz is reported to be forming a new French political party to be called the People's National Party.

Thirdly, German agents are reported to be staging demonstrations in Paris to urge full collaboration with Germany.

Fourthly, an attempt is being made to strangle the economic life in unoccupied France where the shortage of coal, food and petrol has already brought most intense hardships to the people.

Observers believe that though Marshal Petain possesses the trump card in General Weygand, who is now in North Africa ready to take over the French Fleet for the continuance of resistance if Hitler should invade unoccupied France, Hitler has the advantage of holding 2,000,000 French prisoners which constitutes a strong bargaining power.

KWANGTUNG PROMOTES FREE EDUCATION

The Kwangtung educational authorities are energetically pushing the seven-year educational programme which aims at providing free education for 2,282,000 children of poor families.

The public school system has been instituted. At least 11,800 public schools have been reorganised or newly established in the province. The expenses for the promotion of public schools have been set at $2,195,000 for the year ending in June, 1941.

To meet the demand for school teachers 154 training classes were held in 34 countries in which 7,807 teachers were trained. More training classes are being held.

BUMPER HARVEST

A bumper harvest for the present year was forecast by Gen. Chen Chi-tang, Minister of Agriculture and Forestry, in a statement to the Press on the question of increasing food production.

Gen. Chen said that careful planning had been made in connection with the selection of the seeds of agricultural products, the use of fertilizers, insect prevention and control, and conservancy projects. These measures are being carried out and are expected to yield good results.

Meanwhile, in view of the seasonal rains last winter in various parts of the country and the campaign for extensive winter cultivation, Gen. Chen predicted that a bumper harvest is in store for the present year.—(Central News)

CHUNGKING NOT PERTURBED

Communist Situation Under Discussion

CHUNGKING, Feb. 3 (Reuter)—Chinese circles are not at all perturbed over the Communist situation following the High Command's decision to disband the Communist Fourth Army last month.

After the brief fighting between Government and Communist troops on the south bank of the Yangtze, no major fighting is reported to be taking place in any other areas.

Meanwhile negotiations are progressing between the Government and Communist authorities for an amicable settlement of differences. The Chungking Government is not involving any Party with the measures taken against the New Fourth Army and is maintaining the usual relations with the Chinese Communist Party and other political groups.

DEPORTED AS REPRISAL

The German-controlled Dutch radio some weeks ago issued a communique contradicting rumours that Dutch women had been deported to Germany as a reprisal for the internment of German women in the Dutch Indies.

The husband, at The Hague, of one of the deported women protested at the Netherlands Press Bureau in Amsterdam against this German lie, asking for a contradiction. This was refused.

RELEASE WOMEN

Dutch newspapers of Nov. 10, however, contained a report that the Germans had decided to release all interned women because the Dutch East Indies Government had done the same with German women in the Indies.

Passengers from Casablanca tell of the increasing German influence there. Numerous German commissions have been set up to deal with various services. Even the visa for Tangier for a foreigner had to be supervised by a German commission. Newspapers are entirely controlled by them, and a German censorship is in operation.

Vice-Admiral Muselier Deprived Of Nationality

VICHY, Feb. 3 (Reuter)—Vice Admiral Muselier, Commander of the French Forces, has been deprived of French nationality according to an announcement made here yesterday.

Several other prominent Frenchmen were also named. Among them are Baron Eugene Rothschild, a member of the banking family, M. Richard Brunot, formerly Governor of the French Cameroons who was dismissed by the Vichy Government and now at the headquarters of the Free

PROPERTY MARKET HEALTHY, SOUND

The property market during July to December last year was just as satisfactory as the first half of the year, reports Cheong Chee Chye & Co., Ltd.

With the exception of few sales of Trust properties and those properties which had to be sold for the purpose of distribution by executors or administrators, the majority of the properties which were put up for sale in the open market were only to test the market.

In some instances where the prices realised at such sales were extraordinarily good and above the market value, the owners of course sold, and in other cases where the prices did not come up to the owners' expectation they did not.

Sales by private treaty are still numerous, and in some instances higher prices than the actual market value were realised.

Qwing to the abundance of money still lying idle in the market, there were not very many forced sales.

Very few mortgage transactions were done during the latter half of the year under review.

NUMEROUS BUILDINGS

Apart from the buildings which had been completed during 1940 for the Military, Government and Municipality, it is noteworthy that numerous other buildings are springing up in almost every popular district such as Holland Road, Bukit Timah Road, Serangoon Road, Geylang Road, Katong and other districts, although the costs of building materials and labour have considerably gone up.

French Forces in London, and M. Jacques Meyer, Professor at the Hanoi School of Medicine.

There is still, however, a shortage of agricultural land at the present time, and it is for this reason that there is always a market for this sort of property.

The prices of this particular type of property of course vary according to the locality and situation.

On the whole the property market is as healthy and sound as can be expected, showing a definite upward tendency, and it would appear that for the duration of the war, at least, it is the best form of investments for investors and capitalists.

CHANNEL PORTS BOMBED BY R.A.F.

DOCKS OBJECTIVES OF ATTACKS

LONDON, Feb. 3 (Reuter)—Docks at three Nazi invasion ports in occupied France—Boulogne, Ostend and Brest—were attacked by small forces of R.A.F. bombers on Saturday night and just before dawn yesterday.

The Brest attack was made first by planes of the Coastal Command which continued in unfavourable weather in patrols and reconnaissance flights over the occupied coast-line.

Aircraft of the Coastal Command are continuously on the look-out for the first signs of any invasion movement.

Boulogne and Ostend were selected for yesterday's pre-dawn raids.

British fighters, accompanied once by bombers, made a number of daylight raids over Occupied France. Two planes are missing from the operations.

A few single German aircraft made the customary armed reconnaissance following a night of no activity.

Willkie Views Bomb Havoc At Coventry & Birmingham

LONDON, Feb. 3 (Reuter)—Mr. Wendell Willkie started his tour of the bombed provincial cities of England yesterday with visits to Coventry and Birmingham. He was first conducted through the ruins of Coventry Cathedral by the Bishop and was evidently impressed by the devastation he saw.

The rest of the tour, made by car, gave Mr. Willkie an opportunity of seeing the effects of the indiscriminate bombing on the night of the big raid last November, including the destruction of historic buildings, business premises and dwelling houses.

At a press conference, Mr. Willkie stated that the impression formed by his tour of Coventry led him to believe that the destruction described in American newspapers had not been exaggerated. He was greatly impressed by the high morale shown by the citizens and had seen no evidence of depressed spirits or of giving up.

He regarded the fact that the tower and spire of Coventry Cathedral had escaped destruction as being symbolic.

After his tour of Birmingham, Mr. Willkie said that he had been impressed by the organisation of the so-called "shadow" factories.

Referring to the damage in Birmingham, Mr. Willkie was surprised at its extent, "but the reconstruction I have seen put into operation is a perfect example of how a city can recover."

Mr. Willkie added that without morale, courage and steadfastness, which he had seen everywhere, this reconstruction and recovery could not be done.

"I personally hope that America will give you such aid," he added, "that with steadfastness and courage you will shortly win through."

PLEA FOR RETENTION
OF MR. NELSON
T. JOHNSON IN CHINA

SHANGHAI, Feb. 3 (Reuter).—In an editorial entitled "LET NELSON T. JOHNSON REMAIN HERE," the CHINA PRESS this morning pleads for the retention of Mr. Johnson, United States Ambassador to China, "although we have no doubt that Mr. Clarence Gauss' training, experience and understanding of China would make him one of the best envoys the United States ever sent to China."

The paper says that during the past three years the situation in the Far East has bound China and the United States in still closer ties than at any time during the two nations' diplomatic relations. A great part of the credit for the increased co-operativeness and neighbourliness between Washington and Chungking must undoubtedly go to Mr. Johnson whose job had been that of reporter of the China situation and adviser, mentor and interpreter to the Chinese Government of the official Washington attitude.

WELL GROUNDED
Mr. Johnson has been in harness in Chungking for so long and

MILITARY LEAVE
CANCELLED
IN JOHANNESBURG

JOHANNESBURG, Feb. 3 (Reuter).—Up to 10 p.m. last night there had been no recrudescence of rioting except for an isolated incident in the afternoon when it is alleged two soldiers were set upon by civilians.

Meanwhile, military leave has been cancelled and hundreds of soldiers sent back to camps.

Military pickets are aiding in the maintenance of order.

PREMIER'S SPECIAL ORDER
The Prime Minister of South Africa, Gen. Smuts, issued a special order yesterday about the recent disturbances in Johannesburg. He said that he viewed, with the greatest disapproval, the riotous conduct of certain military troops which could only bring discredit on the uniform they wore and to the officer in command, states a London message.

Gen. Smuts drew the attention of all ranks to the necessity of orderly behaviour even in the face of provocation and the officer in command would take steps to enforce authority and civil law which was necessary in that State.

The latest report says that all is quiet in Johannesburg now.

The George Cross, above, and the George Medal, awarded for gallantry.

FEWER PRISONERS IN S'PORE IN 1939

The daily average number of prisoners in the Straits Settlements in 1939 was 1,084, showing a decrease of 136 on the 1938 figure; and in the F.M.S., 923—an increase of 80 on the figure for the previous year.

These figures are given in the report on the Prisons Department for 1939 (consisting of two pages) issued by Mr. O. L. Hancock, Inspector of Prisons.

During the year the evening classes at Taiping for the training of prisoners were continued with success and approval was given for similar experimental classes at the Changi Prison for 1940. The engagement of a Carpenter Instructor for the Changi Prison was also approved.

There were no epidemics in any of the prisons during the year and health was satisfactory.

JUVENILE DECREASE
It is satisfactory to note that there was a total decrease of 120 juvenile offenders admitted during the year. There is no special treatment for juveniles in prisons beyond segregation, as far conditions will permit, from other prisoners.

There is no probation system.

It is of interest to note that 8 European and 39 Asiatic Officers formed Auxiliary Fire Service Sections in connexion with Air Raid Precaution activities.

After care has continued to make steady progress during the year and in Singapore alone no fewer than 185 persons were found work on discharge from prison.

The work of this school, which is under the control of the Department of Education, continued along the lines indicated in the 1938 annual report of that department.

Brief as this report is required to be, it would be incomplete without a sincere expression of gratitude to the many voluntary workers who have continued to give their time and service so unstintingly throughout the year.

ANGLO-CHINESE
CO-OPERATIVE
DEVELOPMENT COMPANY

LONDON, Feb. 3 (Central).—The first meeting of the Board of Directors of the Anglo-Chinese Co-operative Development Company was held here and was attended by Mr. Alfred Barnes, Chairman, Mr. George Woods, Miss Margery Fry, Vice-Chairman of the China Campaign Committee, Miss Dorothy Woodman, Secretary of the Company, Mr. Edgar Duchin, solicitor, Dr. P.W. Kuo, Chinese Administrative Vice-Minister of Finance, and Mr. H.D. Liem, Central News correspondent in London.

The meeting decided to send an application to the Board of Trade for incorporation of the Company.

A letter was drafted to be sent to a list of 150 would-be shareholders who are all prominent British friends of China, inviting them to subscribe the shares of the Company. A list of Chinese residents in London who wish to become shareholders was submitted and co-operation with them was fully discussed.

ESTABLISH CONTACT
The Joint Chinese Advisory Committee attached to the Board of Directors was requested to establish contact with the Chinese Industrial Co-operatives in China with the view that the C.I.C. will supply the Company as soon as possible with full particulars concerning all requirements of the C.I.C. which British and the Company can help to supply.

Practical measures for a publicity campaign in Britain, Scotland and Ireland were decided upon. The campaign will be carried out soon, but it is hoped that shipping facilities permitting, the C.I.C. will send to Britain for exhibition and sale those products manufactured and exhibited by the C.I.C. in Chungking about two years ago as it is felt that such an exhibition is the surest way to arouse the British people's interest in China's effort in national reconstruction despite Japanese invasion.

EX-SERVICEMEN HELP RESTORE CONFIDENCE

It is now revealed that the Singapore branch of the Ex-Services Association of Malaya, impressed by the urgent need to fight and conquer the defeatist attitude that was apparent in some quarters about the middle of 1940, made a strong representation to H.E. the Officer Administering the Government at the time "asking that official statements or communiques should be issued by Government as soon as possible regarding the measures taken, or to be taken, for the security of the inhabitants."

The report for 1940 of the local branch of the Ex-Services Association of Malaya, which is to be presented at the Association's annual meeting on Jan. 31, says that towards the middle of the year, and the months of May and June the war in Europe took a new turn were particularly distressing and cheerless to all Britishers throughout the world. These two months had seen the evacuation of the British Expeditionary Force from Norway, the invasion of the Low Countries, the capitulation of France and the epic episode of Dunkirk.

"The spectre of defeat was beginning to lift up its head and a spirit of defeatism was insidiously creeping into the minds of a number of Europeans and Asiatics in Singapore. Here and there a few residents, instead of setting an example, adopted an open fatalistic attitude regarding Malaya and many members of the Association wrote in, or approached the Committee, drawing attention to the noxious spirit of defeatism which was beginning to circulate in clubs, in offices and in the homes."

CAREFUL ATTENTION
"Your Committee gave this matter their very careful attention and considered methods which would assist in restoring public confidence in Malaya and particularly in Singapore. After some deliberation, a letter was sent to His Excellency the Officer Administering the Government drawing attention to the spirit of defeatism and, with the sole object of restoring public confidence, asking that official statements or communiques should be issued by Government as soon as possible regarding measures taken, or to be taken, for the security of the inhabitants."

"Attached to the letter was a memorandum covering 22 different subjects. It will be gathered that these subjects covered a wide range and it is possible, to mention a few only in this report, e.g. fifth column activities, labour

TIBERIAS

JERUSALEM, Feb. 3 (Reuter).—Mr. R. G. Menzies, the Australian Prime Minister, arrived by air yesterday at Tiberias where he is staying at Government House.

He was met by Sir Harold MacMichael, the High Commissioner, and Gen. Sir Thomas Blamey, General Officer Commanding the Australian Imperial Force.

Mr. Menzies announced last month that he would be visiting England in the near future for "discussions with Mr. Churchill."
